Larry Stephen Lewis, 78, of Annville passed away on Tuesday March 10, 2026, at his residence. He was the husband of Jennifer J. (Babinski) Lewis, with whom he celebrated 24 years of marriage.

Larry was born in Glendale, CA on December 30, 1947, to the late Richard Rodney and Shirley (Grey) Lewis. He had been a draftsman, originally working with pen and ink for many years, then computer aided drafting. He worked for Cracker Barrel in VA and helped with the food pantry at his church in VA. Larry was a member of Faith Baptist Church in Lebanon, where he sang in the choir. He was a member of The Palmyra Sportsman Association. Larry was a member of the former Lebanon 912 Club. In his younger days, he even made a picnic table engraved both with the word "Friends" and his friends' names. Larry also enjoyed muscle cars, drag racing, collecting pennies (since childhood), gardening, prepping, researching on the internet, current events, reading the Bible, and trying to make a difference in this world.

Surviving in addition to his wife are his daughters, Ann Marie Lougheed of Alta Loma, CA, Josephine Miles of Eastvale, CA, four grandchildren, four great grandchildren, a brother Douglas Lewis and his wife Pat of Palmdale, CA, a nephew, Doug Lewis, a niece, Brittany Lewis, a stepmother, Pat Lewis, and several cousins.

“ My friend Larry Lewis passed on. I met him years ago. At the Lynchburg Tea Party. And elsewhere. We had a little group of guys training regularly. Larry inspired me. Despite issues with his health(emphazema) he would show up to train. Every time he was there. When it was -20 degrees he would show up. Put a lot of sunshine patriots to shame. He had trouble keeping up at age 70 (SEVENTY)! But he would try. It was fun to teach him to shoot better. And I enjoyed our conversations about politics, liberty, God, prepping and everything else. He will be missed. - Kurt F.

“ Larry was a sensitive person who felt the pain of others when they got hurt, sick, or were in trouble, and would pray to God for them. He prayed regularly for his family & friends, and for the prayer requests sent by email.

He was very conservative and did not want to waste anything, including food, clothing, vehicles, books – he wanted them to be redeemed or re-purposed, and made of use to someone.

Larry was a good husband, a good neighbor, and a good friend.

He always cherished his friends, keeping in touch, taking the time to talk with them and looking for opportunities for comradery, helping however he could, and praying for them.

He never wanted to hinder anyone’s spiritual growth, nor interfere with where God was leading someone.

He was young at heart with a heart of gold, an encourager, quick to forgive me and often would say he didn’t notice my shortcoming.

Larry will be greatly missed. Someone said to me, “I’m praying God comforts you and fills the emptiness that Larry left.”

May God rest the soul of His servant Larry, and grant him life eternal.
