“ In memory of Uncle Larry

Uncle Larry is remembered as an uncle, son, brother, and friend. He was a decent, hardworking, modest man. Gracious and kind, always had a good word about others, and a proper sense of humor. He was quite close to my father Bill in their early days.

He would visit my mother Tamara's home at Spruce Park. Money was scarce and we would enjoy Friday night meals of egg sandwiches and coffee. I learned to love the sugar cookies he brought from Harms Bakery.

He took me to Lebanon Water Works to shoot his cap and ball revolvers and was quite proud of his collections. When I began hunting at twelve years of age, he lent me his shotgun with which I harvested my first pheasant and rabbit. He was a historian and loved the old black and white movies, horror flicks, and Saturday Night with the Duke.

When I was in town, we enjoyed visiting together in his Lebanon home to reminisce about mother and old times. I was looking forward to more and sad to learn of his death. However, I give praise to God he is with the Lord.

I give thanks for Uncle Larry's life and remember him fondly.
