

Lawrence S. Phillips

May 17, 1936 - July 28, 2011

Lawrence S. Phillips, 75, of 1604 Berry Drive, Lebanon died Thursday July 28, 2011 in the Good Samaritan Hospital, Lebanon. He was the husband of Faye L. Hoffer Weierbach Phillips. Born in Reading on May 17, 1936, he was the son of the late Joseph A. and Minerva Daubert Phillips. He was retired from Bethlehem Steel working in Morgantown, PA and Indiana and served in the U.S. Army. Lawrence was a 1954 graduate of Lebanon High School where he played on the football team. He was a member of Mountville United Methodist Church, Masonic Lodge #379, F.&A.M., Calumet. Indiana and in his earlier years played guitar with a back-up group for many famous Nashville singers. Surviving in addition to his wife is a brother Russell husband of Lynn Phillips of Washington State, a step-brother David husband of Marie Boltz of Hellertown, four step-sons, ten step-grandchildren, nineteen step-great grandchildren, and two step-great great grandchildren. Graveside services and interment will be held at the convenience of the family in Grand View Memorial Park.

PDF Printable Version