“ Paw Paw it's still so hard to realize that your gone. I think about you everyday. You were such an important person to have when I needed someone to just even watch hockey on TV with or play puzzles with. We really connected with are fascination towards pretty aquarium fish. You went through a lot. I seen your strength and honor as a person. I loved how you brought radiance when you were around and the joy you would spread. Now that you gone to the afterlife I pray that God will protect you and that you help guide us to reunite someday again in heaven. RIP Your Grandson Joshua Allen
