

Lewis Wayne Hodges

October 8, 1953 - August 23, 2020

Lewis Wayne Hodges, Sr., age 66, sadly passed away at Hershey Medical Center on Sunday, August 23, 2020. He was born in Fayetteville, North Carolina on October 8, 1953. He was preceded in death by his father, Charles L. Hodges; mother, Helen B. Williams; and beloved stepfather, Charles E. Williams.

Wayne, as he was called by family, is survived by his wife, Sarah Hodges; his children: Matthew Shane Hodges, Noah Charles Hodges, and from a previous marriage, Lewis Wayne ("Deegen") Hodges, Jr., and Tina Marie Hodges; sister, Susan Travis-Paulsen (Lennard); niece, Michelle Travis (Robert Demand); and great nephew, the adorable Charlie; as well as many other extended family members.

Wayne enlisted in the Army at an early age and years later was honorably discharged. Following his military service, he received his CDL license and worked thirty-two years as a long-haul truck driver, a job he loved. Given his friendly nature, Wayne was known to stop and talk with people he met in truck stops and diners along the way. Afterwards, he worked in the restaurant business, and most recently, worked for a commercial cleaning service as an independent contractor. Wayne enjoyed driving, tattoos, and storytelling. He could be quite funny! Wayne was an animal lover and had one or more cats during his lifetime. He was loved by his family and friends and will be greatly missed.

Due to COVID-19 restrictions, a private memorial service will be held at a later date.
