“ Linda gave my daughter, Renee Houser, riding lessons back in the '80's. Renee and Matt were around the same age. My husband, Ed, worked with your dad, Tuff, at TMI. Linda gave her time generously to Renee and said, "it's my own time." Now my 14 year old granddaughter, Marlo, (Renee's niece...our son's daughter) is an equestrian and thoroughly loves the sport. “ Lavina Riggelman(Hess) just called me to say your Mother passed away. All of you have my deepest sympathy at this difficult time. She was a good neighbor, and friend, as were all of you! I am sending this to the funeral home, as I would only have Doug's address. I have lots of good memories and at this difficult time it is okay to laugh when a good one comes to mind, as I found out they do help to heal. Please consider all of you with a hug from me, and with the service at a later date, I will be there. Your families former neighbor, Mary Ann (Reedy) Kapp.
