“ Linda will be greatly missed. I met her when I was 16 and pregnant. I had three babies with her by my side and she was a fantastic RNLP. I stayed in small contact with her over the last 34 years. What a true friend she is to me. We all know the gates of heaven were open for her to come in for god would have nothing to ask her to declare. Thank you for the friendship and close personal support in my life. You will be missed.

“ I (Susan) have many incredible memories with Linda for she was married to my father, James J Gladfelter who precedes her in death along with her step-children Susan Gladfelter and Lisa Behrens. I lived with Linda and my Dad while attending Culinary school. My daily routine after school was to come home and watch Charm with Linda before I did my homework. We loved how it annoyed Dad. My family and I are very saddened by the loss of Linda and will always see her as a vital family member. We love you, Linda!
