“ Dear Gary, Brian and the rest of the Laudermilch family, our deepest sorrow on the loss of Linda. She was an unbelievable person that will never be forgotten. Scott and I always considered here our 2nd mom. We wish she had the opportunity to meet our children, we just know that she would have loved them. Gary and Brian please remember that if you guys need anything please let us know, we are just a phone call away. Again our deepest condolence on the loss of a great wife, mother, sister and grandmother. She will be missed very much.

“ Gary & Brian, Wishing you comfort and closure at this difficult time. Our family prayer is that in the silence of a cool fall morning broken only by the sights and sounds of our natural world, that you might find that moment of peace and understanding that though the body is still, Linda's spirit will be with you always, everywhere, and forever. Linda is a wonderful lady, her spirit will make you smile.
