“ Linda was a big part of Millcreek Lutheran Church who rarely missed a Sunday. She always sat over to the left in the pew behind Emma. There were many times during a service when she'd look over & give a wink when something was said or done that caught her attention with that unique sense of humor of hers. Linda was a big part of the 2nd Sunday "sweet Sunday" in church. She loved to bake & share her love with those of us who got to eat her goodies at church or up at the lake.

Linda left us quickly & with little fan fare...it's still hard to believe but it was so like Linda.

Millcreek Lutheran Church will miss her & we will miss her personally. It was a privilege to be a small part of her life.

“ I met Linda when I had my sewing shop and we shared lot of good times together, Also found out that Linda and my Husband Marvin had been classmates in school. Always helping others and going out of her way for friends. we spent time together doing craft shows and organizing one of our own,. I loved when she would call and say this is Linda the pest but I never thought of her that way. We lived close to each other so she would stop by once or twice a week , Linda will be greatly missed by my family,
Love and Prayers go out to Brian and Bethany.

“ I became friends with Linda while I worked as a massage therapist. I should have known that she fit in somehow to the Breidigam family from Newmanstown. I knew Bryan’s family and relatives all my life and spent lots of hours in their company when I was in the youth group the Luther League whose advisors were Emma and Lee Breidigam, Brian’s parents. Linda and I became friends and began to work with others doing fundraising dances for the humane society. Linda was always talking about their vacations to the Outer Banks and eventually, I became part of the group invited to stay with Linda and Brian. Now I could understand why she spoke so highly to these vacations. The accommodations were like being in a five star hotel. Brian cooked breakfast every day. You got your own lunch and dinner was a family style meal prepared by Linda. Evenings were filled with all kinds of games with lots of laughter. Linda spent a lot of time preparing food but she always said she wanted to do that. She really enjoyed doing things for others. She knew my granddaughter and it was not unusual for Linda to bring things in a bag with books or games for Halloween or whatever holiday was coming up. She would always ask about my family and knew what was going on in my life. It is going to take some time for all of this sadness to register with my mind to realize that this is real. My mind may accept that you are gone but I wish someone would tell my heart. May you rest with those who have gone before you.....I will miss you my friend.

“ I want to share my special love of Linda’s kindness. She was very instrumental and diligent in keeping a group of friends together. She took it upon herself to make calls on a regular basis for times to get together. What a wonderful friend. She will be missed greatly. Rest In Peace Linda.
