

Lorraine Mae Dundore

August 28, 1913 - January 27, 2014

Lorraine Mae Boeshore Dundore, 100, passed away on Monday, January 27, 2014, at Cornwall Manor. She was the beloved wife of the late Wilbur Dundore.

Lorraine was born on August 28, 1913, in Fredericksburg and was the daughter of the late Harry & Annie Wagner Boeshore. She graduated from Fredericksburg High School and attended Lebanon Valley College. After her marriage in 1934, Lorraine helped her husband operate Dundore's General Store in Fredericksburg. She was also active in the St. John's Lutheran Church, Fredericksburg, the school and community organizations.

She was a wonderful cook and locally "famous" for her shoofly pies. She loved reading, listening to music and playing the piano. After retiring to Cornwall Manor, she often played the piano for worship services in the Health Center on Campus. While at Cornwall, Lorraine enjoyed line dancing, water aerobics and time especially spent with her family.

She is survived by her son Jack Dundore of Middletown; daughters Patricia wife of Dr. Ernest Nau of Fairfax, VA, & Joan wife of George Hood of San Diego, CA; grandchildren Gregory M. Nau, Jennifer L. Nau de Groot & Andrew D. Hood and five great grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at 2 PM on Saturday, February 8, 2014, at the Levi Zerr Chapel at Cornwall Manor. Visitation with the family will follow the service. Inurnment will be held at Cedar Hill Cemetery, Fredericksburg, at the convenience of the family.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Cornwall Manor Benevolent Care, PO Box 125, Cornwall, PA 17016 or to the St. John's Lutheran Church, PO Box 173, Fredericksburg, PA 17026.
