“ I met Lorraine a few years ago. I always thought I know her from somewhere, She always seemed so familiar to me but couldn't place it. I work at Strickler Insurance and Lorraine would always come into the office. I enjoyed all of our talks and each month we would chat about things that happened in the last month. I really liked her and I am so surprised to read she had passed I just saw her two weeks ago. Your mom is a special lady and I will really miss her. It was only after reading her Obituary that I remember where I had know her from it was Schwalms. I used to take my mother there and Lorraine would always be our waitress and then it all clicked. So sorry for your loss she was a special lady. I will miss our talks.
