

Louise M. Lloyd

March 24, 1933 - August 28, 2025

Louise M. Lloyd, 92, formerly of Lebanon, passed away on Thursday August 28, 2025 at The Lebanon Valley Home in Annville.

Louise was born in Lebanon on March 24, 1933 to the late Thomas Lloyd, Sr. and Sadie (Krick) Lloyd. She was a 1951 graduate of Lebanon High School. Some may remember Louise from her years of tending the Lloyd's Potato Chips stand at local markets, with her family. The company was active during the 1930's until the early 1960's. In those days, the family's potato chips were widely available at corner stores and farmer's markets throughout the Lebanon area. Later, Louise worked in retail before becoming a dog groomer and the proprietor of Shady Oak Dog Grooming. Louise enjoyed watching classic movies, spending time with her beloved dogs, was an avid Philadelphia Flyers and Hershey Bears fan, and more recently she enjoyed following the Philadelphia Phillies.

She is survived by her niece JoEllen Walters and her husband Donald of Lebanon, her great nephews: Nathan Walters and his wife Josette of Annville, Thomas Walters and his wife Brittany of Lebanon. She was preceded in death by her brother, Thomas Lloyd, Jr.

A graveside service will be held on Wednesday September 10, 2025, at 11AM at Schaeffertown Cemetery, Miller and Church Streets, Schaefferstown.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to Lebanon Valley Home, Benevolent Fund, 550 E. Main Street, Annville, PA 17003.

“ The few times I visited with Aunt Louise was with her caring niece, JoEllen. I found her enthusiasm infectious whether it was for her favorite sports team, enjoying the Christmas holiday time or over a delicious bowl of ice cream at Udder Choice. I was most encouraged by the care that JoEllen showed her as I watched her and her family serve her with the love of Christ, making her last years easier. God's blessings in your loss.
