

Luella V. Starry

February 13, 1909 - May 27, 2010

Luella V. Starry, 101, died on Thursday, May 27, 2010, at Hill Farm Estates. She was born in Lebanon on February 13, 1909, daughter of the late Eugene and Valara Beamesderfer. She formerly lived at Washington Arms. During her younger years she worked in Lebanon's sewing factories. Later in life she was a dedicated volunteer for 31 years at Good Samaritan Hospital through RSVP. She was a member of St. Andrews Presbyterian Church. She is survived by a daughter, Phyllis Smith of Marietta, Ga., 11 grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren, five great-great grandchildren, and numerous nephews and nieces. She was preceded in death by a daughter Jacqueline Keilty, a husband John D. Starry, five sisters and one brother. A graveside service will be held on Tuesday June 1, at 11:00AM from the Mt. Lebanon Cemetery 235 Maple St. Lebanon, PA. Contributions may be made to Horizons Hospice 2300 Vartan Way Suite 240 Harrisburg, PA 17110.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

KH

“ My condolences to Luella's family. I consider myself privileged to be among those who encountered her during her and my lifetime. I first met her in the early 1970's as a new member of St. Andrews church, and then when I became the director of RSVP in Lebanon County in 1978, I learned to know her as one of our most dedicated senior volunteers in Lebanon County. Long after I retired from RSVP in 1985, I would meet Luella in the hospital or at church and she would always greet me with a big smile and a "How are you doing Kathy!" May your fondest memories of her be those which last the longest. Blessings to each of you as you mourn her passing. She has left you with a wonderful legacy. Sincerely, Kathy Hetrick

Kathleen L. Hetrick - June 01, 2010 at 12:00 AM