“ I met Lynne in the first grade at St. Mary's and we were instant friends. I have so many fond memories of all the fun we had together at neighborhood play and HS frolicks. My sympathy to the family, and may God ease your grief swiftly so all that remains are happy memories. God you have your angel, Lynne back home with you. Lynne, I love you and miss you; please be waiting for me when it is my time to come home.

“ What a blessing Lynne was in my life! She has been such a dear friend who was always there for me or anyone else who needed her. I have such special memories of our time together! Her life here on earth may have ended but the beginning of a new & better life in heaven has begun. Praying for God's peace and comfort for Jay, Jason, Adam and family as they go through this season of mourning. Good-bye for now my dear, sweet, beautiful Linnie!

“ My dear friend Linnie...how tuff you fought..how strong you have been...rest now my friend for you are free...I will miss you so much but it's now time to let you go... I know that you are in a better place and that Heaven has another Angel. To Linnie's family, may you find peace in knowing that she is with God and she is free from pain. My heart aches for you all and I want you all to know that I am so much a better person to have known her and been her friend. God Bless you all.
