

Major General Frank H. Smoker

July 16, 2010

Major General Frank H. Smoker, Jr., USAF (Retired), 85, of Lebanon, PA, passed away on July 16, 2010, following a lengthy illness. Born in Columbia, Lancaster Co., PA, he was the son of the late F. Harold and Catherine Smoker. He was a 1943 graduate of Columbia High School, Franklin and Marshall College, Auburn University, and the Air War College at Maxwell Air Force Base, AL. He was the husband of Kathleen Farrow Smoker, formerly of Wellingborough, England, with whom he would have celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary in December. Also surviving are a sister, Sarah Boice (The Rev. James), Chambersburg, PA; and brother, Richard Smoker (Marion), Sun City, FL; daughter, Barbara Harvey, North Wales, PA; son, Colonel David Smoker, PAANG, (Brenda) New Cumberland, PA; son and daughter, Dung and Loi Phung, Lebanon, PA; and grandchildren: Amanda Swarr, Seattle, WA; Jessica Stout, Quakertown, PA; Manh Phung, Ashburn, VA; Thao Wessler, (Jared) Royersford, PA; Captain Tien Phung, USAF, (fiancé-Elizabeth Johnson) Scott AFB, MO; and 5 great grandchildren. Gen Smoker was a veteran of World War II. He enlisted in the Army Air Corps in February 1943 and served in the 8th Air Force, where he was assigned to the 325th Bomb Squadron, 92nd Bomb Group, Podington Air Base, England. He flew 26 combat missions over Germany as a B-17 navigator, totaling 222 combat hours. He met his wife, Kathleen, while serving in England. He joined the Pennsylvania Air National Guard in 1946 and graduated from the United States Air Force Pilot Training in 1952. During the 1960's, he flew numerous worldwide transport missions in C-121 aircraft, including five combat missions into Vietnam. He flew a total of over 5,000 hours. During his 42 year military career, he had numerous assignments, including Commander of the Pennsylvania Air National Guard for seven years prior to his retirement in 1985. Upon retirement he was promoted to the honorary rank of Lieutenant General, Pennsylvania National Guard Retired List. He received numerous awards and decorations, foremost of which was the Air Force's highest peacetime decoration presented upon retirement, the Air Force Distinguished Service Medal. He was awarded the Air Medal with Three Oak Leaf Clusters, the Bronze Medallion presented by the Chapel of the Four Chaplains, and the Order of Aaron and Hur Award presented by the Chief of Chaplains, United States Army. He was also awarded the rank of Distinguished Eagle Scout by the Boy Scouts of America in 1989 and was inducted into the Pennsylvania Air National Guard Hall of Fame in 1992 and the Dept. of Military and Veterans Hall of Fame in 1998. In 1994, Gen. Smoker was honored as one of six generals who were born and raised in Columbia. He was the recipient of the Thirty-Third Degree, the highest honor of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, conferred by the Supreme Council, A.A.S.R., September 1998. Gen Smoker was instrumental in founding the Pennsylvania National Guard Museum at Fort Indiantown Gap. He served as Museum President of the Board of Directors. He also served in a volunteer capacity on various community organizations, including Chairman of the Board in the Lebanon County Chapter of the American Red Cross and the Board of Directors of United Way of Lebanon County. He was a member of numerous organizations, including the Air Force Association, the National Guard Associations of the United States and of Pennsylvania; Columbia Lodge #286, F & AM, the National Sojourners Harrisburg Ch. 76, and the National Eagle Scout Association. Gen And Mrs. Smoker were actively involved with the Vietnamese refugees at Fort Indiantown Gap in 1975. The Smoker family resided at Fort Indiantown Gap from 1953 to 1985. Gen Smoker is the author of Back at the Gap, The History of Fort Indiantown Gap, published in 2009.

His column entitled "Back at the Gap" appeared in the Lebanon Daily News from 2003 to 2005. There will be no viewing. A memorial service will be held on Wednesday July 21,2010 at 11:30 AM from the Post Chapel, Fort Indiantown Gap. Seating in chapel is limited. Interment at 1:00 PM at Fort Indiantown Gap National Cemetery with full military honors. In lieu of flowers, donations to PA National Guard Military Museum, Fort Indiantown Gap. Bldg. T-8-57, Annville, PA 17003-5002, would be appreciated.

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

JS

“ Dave & Brenda, Our Thoughts & Prayers are with you and your family during this time of sorrow. May the Lord our God bring peace to you and yours. God Bless Jeff and Jill

---

Jeff & Jill Still - July 20, 2010 at 12:00 AM

BH

“ I share my deepest sympathy with Mrs. Smoker, Barbara and David and families .Gen. Smoker was a gentleman of great accomplishment and a true friend. His kindness and support have been cherished by me these many years. I join family and so many friends in mourning his passing. God bless , Bob Hoffman

---

Bob Hoffman - July 19, 2010 at 12:00 AM

RD

“ Dave and Brenda Our deepest sympathies go out to you. General Smoker was a wonderful person and we were blessed to have known him. God Bless.

---

Rick & Ann Daldo - July 19, 2010 at 12:00 AM

RM

“ Dear Kathleen: I was so sorry to learn of Gen. Smoker's death. He will be missed and remembered for his many wonderful qualities and his concern and care for others. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. With love,

---

Ruth Anne Miller - July 18, 2010 at 12:00 AM

SS

“ Your dad's spirit will be sadly missed. We will do our best to keep his goals alive for future generations. Sincerely, Sgt Smith

---

SGT Damian J. M. Smith - July 17, 2010 at 12:00 AM

JT

“ Janet Taylor and children Ryan and Andrew Kemp send their warmest thoughts and prayers. God Bless.

---

Janet Taylor - July 17, 2010 at 12:00 AM

JS

“ My deepest sympathies to his family and friends in this time of loss. While I only had the pleasure of knowing him a short time, his character and heart lives on in the beautiful reflection of those people his life touched. This world is a better place having had him in it. My thoughts and prayers will be with you.

---

John Singer - July 17, 2010 at 12:00 AM