“ Dearest Aunt Maretta, If tears could build a stairway, and memories a lane. I would walk right up to Heaven and bring you back again. No farewell words were spoken, No time to say "Goodbye". You were gone before I knew it, and only God knows why. My heart still aches with sadness, and secret tears still flow. What it meant to love you - No one can ever know. But now I know you want me to mourn for you no more; To remember all the happy times life still has much in store. Since you'll never be forgotten, I pledge to you today~ A hollowed place within my heart is where you'll always stay (~Unknown). You will always live on in our hearts... Love, Mary Ann, Brant, Brad & Brianna

“ Our dearest Aunt Maretta: I will certainly miss our LONG conversations on the phone and your sense of humor. You always brought so much joy and laughter to me during our conversations. We will truly miss you and you are now at peace with Uncle Ozzie and the Stott family. God Bless You my darling and some day, we will meet up again. You will always be with us in mind and thought. Love to you now and forever. Lory
