“ *I remember visiting Aunt Margaret house in Jonestown in the 60's for a week or 2...great memories! She was a wholesome "down to Earth" lady who had alot of love in her heart and cared about others....A life well lived is never to be sad about..she lived a full abundant life...Godspeed Aunt Margaret! I remember visiting my aunt Margaret in the 1960s during my elementary school years. She had a wonderful house cook great meals and we played Tripoli Plaza family. A few years ago she came to visit and I got to know her better as an adult. Her sly wit and stories were great. I wish I had Spent more time with her. Her nephew Patrick Dixon

I remember visiting my aunt Margaret and cousins in Jonestown in the 1960s during my elementary school years. It was great. We could ride bikes all over town, play games, and she had a great house. I got to know her better a few years ago when she came down to visit my mother or sister. She had a great wit and great stories. I wish I had spent more time with her. My condolences to Jennifer and Rachel
