“ My memories of my favorite cousin, Margaet, go back to early childhood. Many summers I spent with her and Aunt Pearl and Uncle Ted when they lived on Arlington Avenue in Upper Darby. They were fun times. I remember when Peg was a teenager and dating the boy down the street (Bill, who later became her first husband) and I would go to his house and ask his mother if he could come up and play Monopoly with us. One year they went to a high school dance and Peg wore a black crepe dress with a hood lined with white satin and black dots. She looked beautiful! I remember Skippy, their white Eskimo dog and rides in the rumbleseat with Aunt Pearl when Uncle Ted would take us on some of his business trips. I also have many fond memories of times spent at the farm in Honeybrook with her children. My son called Dianne, Suzanne and Joanne his big sisters when they would take him for pony rides. When we moved out of state our communication was limited to phone calls and letters which were all so cheery and newsy. Last spring Joanne brought her to Florida for our very last visit. I will cherish that forever. Thank you, Joanne. My family and I send our shared condolences to the entire family along with our love and prayers. Your Mom was truly "one in a million." Love to you all. Ruth Lott and Family

“ Joan Ney-Maxwell on behalf of my brother Mark Ney his children and myself, I extend our deepest sympathies and prayers to the special lady we called Aunt Margaret.
Many fond memories of our childhood at Uncle Ted's and Aunt Pearl's farm and the person I always thought of as the mistress of the lawn games. As an adult many phone calls and cards exchanged trying to cram in news, good and bad as life gives...always a word of encouragement and a sense of well being just knowing we had our dear one in Honeybrook. My neice said visiting Aunt Margaret was like watching a Hallmark movie. She will be missed more than I can express.

“ My deepest sympathy to the family on Margaret's passing. Fond memories of Jere's and my time at Annville Church when your mother attended. She was so helpful when I worked with her at the Gap in Army Reserve Payroll one summer. When we were transferred to Swarthmore, she visited; and when we were in Morgantown, she attended church frequently. I always enjoyed hearing about the children and grandchildren--and especially appreciated viewing the pictures of all of you when Kevin and I visited her ! She was a wonderful mother, grandmother, and friend !
Sincerely, Beverly Martin
