“ Tom and Kay
So sorry to hear the news of your mother's passing. I truly share your grief at this difficult time as well as revisiting good memories. Our parents helped make growing up in Bellegrove an enjoyable experience and your mother was a major 'positive' in that process. Will always fondly recall that 'Grove chorus (donkeys) ...

“ Kay & Tom,

I am so sorry to hear that Aunt Marion is gone! Her hugs were the best ever! My mom, Sue also sends her condolences. Over the years, mom often talked about meeting the family way back in 1956! She always said that Marion was one of the first Shanamans to welcome her with open arms. The picture you selected is the face I see anytime I think of Aunt Marion. You are in my thoughts and prayers and if there is anything I can do, I will do it.

“ So sorry, Kay and Tom, to learn of your mother's passing. So many fond memories of her come to mind -- as my Sunday School teacher, singing in the ladies quartet at church, and seeing her at the meat stand at the Lebanon Farmers Market. As a young girl I learned to sing alto in Sunday School as I stood beside her and heard her singing alto. She had such a bubbly personality and always had a smile. God bless you at this time and give you peace and joy at her homegoing. Love, Elaine Krum Winters

“ Wondering if Marion was our neighbor in Bellgrove? The family had donkeys... If so, I remember those donkeys waking me in the morning..we lived across the street. Shanaman's were good neighbors. Hope your memories carry you through the grief. Isaiah 26:3
