

Mark R. Wenger

April 17, 1954 - August 7, 2025

Mark R. Wenger, 71, of Cleona passed away on Thursday August 7, 2025, at his residence. He was the husband of Marianne K. (Erwin) Wenger, with whom he celebrated 51 years in marriage.

Mark was born in Lebanon to the late Robert C. and Ethel P. (Bomberger) Wenger. He was a 1972 Northern Lebanon High School graduate. He was a mechanical technician for Met-Ed, and worked for Miller Chevrolet, 911 Rapid Response, and Iron Valley Golf Course. He was a member of USGTF (United States Golf Teachers Federation), The Moose, IBEW (International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers), NRA (National Rifle Association), and USGA (United States Golf Association). Mark was an avid Philadelphia Eagles fan, and he enjoyed golfing, hunting, fishing, tinkering with different projects, traveling, being with friends, and his family time.

Surviving in addition to his wife are his children: Amy Davenport (Brian) of Lebanon; Jonathan Wenger (Melissa) of N. Andover, MA; Amanda Smith (Gary) of Jonestown; grandchildren: Samuel, Savanna, Nate, and Dominic; siblings: Lee Wenger (Beverly) of Annville; Earl Wenger (Lousie) of Myerstown; Rachel Blauch (Ralph) of Annville; and brother-in-law, Glenn Seibert. He was preceded in death by his brother, Kenneth Wenger; his sister, Jean Seibert; and a sister-in-law, Janice Wenger.

“ I just lit a fresh JFR cigar and thought of Mark. Then I opened Facebook and saw Amanda's post that brought me here. I'm glad I got to spend some time with him at camp.
