“ I met Mark on the North Annville Elementary playground when he came to my rescue. We never knew each other better than that one time encounter but he was a hero to me then and now. We reconnected many years later through Facebook when my husband Tim was also on dialysis. Mark had a quirky, irreverent humor and way of a delightful way of navigating life that was uplifting no matter his life challenges. Peace is yours now Mark and look up my husband.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Mark's passing. I have fond memories of him when we were children and teenagers. I hadn't seen him in years but last week I was thinking of him and then found out in church on Sunday that he had passed away. My thoughts and prayers are with his family.

“ I've known Mark since elementary school, but lost touch after we graduated from high school. We became reacquainted in the last couple of years continuing a friendship through Facebook. I will miss his daily posts and videos of his aquarium. As a kid he had a quick wit, and that never changed. He was a friend I didn't want to let go of, and I will miss him. May you find peace in knowing he is fully healed, and in through precious memories of him that are precious to you. - Suzi Lemon Souder
