“ *Dear Janet Hernley Family,
I am so sorry for Marlin's untimely death and your loss. I knew of Marlin through Calvary Christian Center. A very kind man, friendly man. I thoroughly enjoyed Marlin playing the organ at the gospel concerts. May he rest in peace. May God comfort you at this time.*

“ So sorry to hear of Marlin's passing. We will certainly miss him playing the organ at Abbottstown. His talent was amazing! God be with you Janet, as you learn to adjust to life without him. We find comfort in believing he is participating in that Heavenly choir right now. Memories of Marlin will always make us smile.

“ What a blessing Marlin was to our Music Group in Florida. We will always remember him as he played the piano and organ which ever fit the music he was playing. We sang when he played. Often he would play the piano when someone else was play the organ just to add an extra blessing to the music. He always had a smile, ready to share thoughts and music. We hurt so when he met Jesus face to face but rejoice he is forever with the Lord. Our hurt is heavens gain. Praying for you Janet as you adjust to your loss. Sweet memories we have of both of you.
Much love,
