

Martha M. Fleck

December 21, 1935 - March 1, 2019

Martha M. Fleck, 83, of Lebanon, passed away at Spang Crest. She was the wife of the late Thomas J. Fleck, who passed away in 2011.

Martha was born in Towanda, PA on December 21, 1935 to the late Henry S. and Mary (Taylor) Darrow. Martha had worked as a secretary for Heritage Village in Bloomsburg and in medical billing for Geisinger Medical Center in Danville. She then enjoyed living in Florida for almost 30 years. While in Florida she was involved in numerous activities. She had been a member of the Red Hat Society, Newcomer's Club, and sang with a chorus group that entertained many area nursing facilities. She also started Friends Helping Friends in her over 55 community. Martha enjoyed traveling with her husband. She was self-taught in yodeling and enjoyed entertaining folks with this rare talent. She had even performed on radio in her younger days and won many talent accolades.

Surviving are her daughters, Donna L. Walker of Riverside, CA and Linda L. Reedy and Edwin of Lebanon; her grandchildren, Melissa M. Heisler and her husband Matthew, Megan M. Reedy, Ashley A. Taylor and her husband Omar, and Arielle J. Walker; her great grandchildren, Madison and Matthew Heisler, Cashus Taylor, Daniel and Evelyynn Attebury. She is also survived by her brother Richard H. Darrow and his wife Anne of Sayre, PA; and by her step son, Thomas J. Fleck, Jr., and his wife Leslie, and their children Aimee and Matthew. She was preceded in death by her brother William Darrow and her step son, David Fleck.

A private service will be held at the convenience of the family.
www.kreamerfuneralhome.com

Tribute Wall

“ 3 files added to the album photo album

Linda - March 04, 2019 at 09:55 AM