“ Dear Sharon, Andy and Mandy,
With great sadness for your loss and fond memories, we remember our Uncle Matty. How he love to build and tinker with cars! As A teen, I offer went to watch him race his 'purple Barracuda' not to mention him building the race car the 'Frito Bandito", as he called the car. What a gift he had and an accomplishment! As an adult, we often crossed paths when I visited mom/mawmaw when Matty would just stop in to say hello. Uncle Matty always made time to spend with mom to break up her routine and let her know that she was important in the family.
Uncle Matty now hold a special place in our hearts where he will always be remembered with love and kindness. Love, Jackie
