“ Max and I were coworkers at Woolworths back in the day. He taught me more than I ever wanted to know about sporting goods. He often kept his great sense of humor hidden but then he would hit you with a joke that would have you laughing for the rest of the day. My favorite memory of Max was the Halloween day he dressed as our female coffeeshop manager complete with his bushy black mustache! He copied her moves and personality almost better than her! I can still see that picture in my mind and every time I do it still makes me laugh! He will be missed. My thoughts and prayers are with his family at this time.
