“ Dear Hershey Family,I met Mel a couple years back when the battery in my truck died. He kind of thought that that was funny. Mel sure could see the bright side of everything... after he rubbed it in a little. When Mel spoke of his family I would always see a little sparkle in his eyes. To me he was a true example of a hard working man, proud of his family, loyal to his friends, full of life and love. May his Light live on through family and friends.
