“ Dear Jan and family, we were saddened to hear about the loss of Mike. A great man and wonderful soccer coach. Will never forget the one time he was running a little late for practice, when he arrived he said “sorry i’m running a little late, making a living almost got in the way of coaching soccer” made us all laugh. With sincere sympathy. Dave and Jeanne Simone.

“ Words seem so inadequate to let you know how heartfelt the loss of a dear friend, co-worker and fellow retiree touches all who shared in his life-our condolences and very sincere sympathy to each of you! I speak on behalf of the Retiree Coffee group which Mike was a large part of and want you to know how much his passing touches each of our hearts. Use our feelings and words to somehow help to ease your pain! He was a very unique individual indeed, which made him a swell co-worker, who will be missed immensely!

Most sincerely,
John Quairoli

“ We were immediately flooded with so many fun memories shared between our families, Mike, Jan and their boys and us and our boys. Scout leaders, summer camp where Jarrod ended up screaming in his sleep because he was upside down in his sleeping bag and Mike and Terry went running in their tighty whities to see what was going on while Lucas looked on with eyes as big as saucers. Singing the watermelon song at scout meetings and Mike's gum went flying out of his mouth, and in typical Mike fashion he picked it up and put it back in his mouth without missing a beat. Boating and camping out on the Swattie with Jordan as Captain Poo and Lucas falling in after he just got cleaned up for the day. Our families going to Camp in Potter Co, baking chicken legs with bbq sauce and the boys thought it was the best thing ever, going for a drive to look for wildlife and Jan said she saw a “brown wobbly thing “. Going to pool parties when the kids got older and spending time with Justin, Jarrod and Jordan as adults and their beautiful families, our granddaughters getting to know the “water moccasin “ man. Terry knew he could count on Mike whenever he needed help and Mike could count on Terry. We will miss you friend. Our love to the family.
