“ Growing up and growing older. Mike and I kept a very special bond. We could talk things out. Listen and be heard. Sometimes thats all we really needed. A friend, someone who knew you. My love for my brother is boundless. Mike would call me at any time. Sometimes just to check on me. Sometimes to let me check on him. His love for his wife and kids, Ronda, lil Mike, and Bridgett. This love was only outshined by his love for his grandchildren. He would do whatever he had to... for all of them. He loved his Military Life, he loved the freedom of the open roads and being able to just get in the car and go.. wherever! He traveled to many places around the globe! Finally, being able to build a life in a home where he knows he was able to provide for his wife.. that was his last mission. Mission accomplished!
