“ I didn't know Mike well, but met him through his work at Sauder's Hardscape. He did his job with excellence and great customer service... he would see our trucks roll in and start pulling our order even before we brought the ticket to him. He will be missed! Prayers to his friends & family...”

We always loved having Mike come over for an evening. Most times he would pick up the guitar 🎸 and start strumming a song from scratch. He liked to include people around him in his songs and always had us laughing. Mike is missed tremendously.

“ Mike was able to light up a room. He was quick, witty and hilarious. As stated, he had a wealth of knowledge and he would often tell me historical facts, especially about WW2. He was a very gifted guitarist.

I am blessed to have had Mike as a friend. I love him as a brother like Eric said. I've kept a picture of Mike and myself that was given to me by our thrift store. It was meant as "ROFM: Where even Cowboys and Eagles fans can get along." 😊

Love you, Mike.

“ I never did get to hear Mike play Revelation Song on his guitar, but I have a great memory of singing it with him at a Sauder's Morning Huddle. I will think of Mike every time I sing Revelation Song.

“ I lived with Mike for a year, and in that short time we became very close, we worked out together, played music, board games, talked about pop culture, history, music, and shared a lot about our common struggles, he was the little brother I never had, I love you Mike and I pray you found your peace
