Mike was like a brother and best friend to me. Even though we were divorced 35 years ago we remained dear friends. Every person or organization he ever touched knew that they could count on Mike for anything. If I ever had a question or concern I would call him and he would always have the answer. He was a genius with all topics especially history, politics, school protocol, retirement, anything German and just everyday life. I have been trying to learn to speak German for years. Mike would coach me when we spoke or were together and when we were married we would have one hour every day when we spoke only German. I learned a lot in those days. He was everyone's rock. He was the best principal I ever had and an excellent teacher who loved his students. He drove me to Rehoboth Beach several times for church services with Jonathan Baker and to Jon's parents funerals, and retirement services. Everyone loved him and he especially loved Jenean, his loving partner of 29 years. I pray for her strength during this unbelievable time. I can't imagine a world without Mike or how she must be grieving the loss. It seems so empty and lonely without him. I look forward to seeing him again and I know he is much happier in heaven with Jesus, his ancestors, sister, and all who have gone before him who loved him. He must have received quite a welcome party. I'll see you when I get there, Herr Muller!. Say, "Hi", to my ancestors and Vanna for me. My dad always loved you so much. Rest in wonderful peace, dear, dear friend. You will be terribly missed. Deb Ellis
