

Michael R. Yavoich

October 14, 1928 - August 29, 2014

Michael R. Yavoich, Sr., of Hummelstown, passed away on Friday, August 29, 2014, at the M. S. Hershey Medical Center. He was the husband of Carolyn R. Galinac Yavoich. On May 28th, they celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary.

Born in Washington, PA on October 14, 1928, he was the son of the late Michael and Viola Jasinski Yavoich. He retired from the PA Dept. of Labor and Industry, where he had been an inspector. During WW II, he served as a Corporal in the US Air Force and he was a member of the Lawton Legion and the Rutherford VFW. He especially enjoyed cooking.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by his sons Michael R. and his wife Sandra Yavoich of Hummelstown and David W. and his wife Grace Yavoich of Jonestown; brothers Stanley Michaleski of Hagerstown, MD, Joseph Michaleski of Kinsman, OH, John Michaleski of Orwell, OH and Edward Michaleski of OH; Grandchildren Andrew, Matthew (Megan), Joseph (Samantha), Brian (Suzanne), Nathan and Michelle and a great granddaughter, Aurora.

He was preceded in death by his brothers Robert Yavoich, and Chester Michaleski.

A Graveside Service will be held on Friday, September 5, 2014, at 2:30 PM at the Indiantown Gap National Cemetery.

Kreamer & Lum Funeral Home & Crematory, Jonestown is in charge of the arrangements.

www.kreamerlumfh.com