“ Although I hadn't seen her since I moved to Florida nine years ago, I will always have fond memories of her years of outspoken activism and her personal friendship. Gone too soon and definitely missed.

I am just seeing this now, how sad I did her hair for years and years, but then when I left the salon that I currently work at now again I didn't see her again and I was wondering about her
May she sleep in peace

“ My husband, George, and I had hoped to attend the services this afternoon, but were unable to do so. We served on the board of PA Nonbelievers with Mikki for many years, and were always impressed by her determination and fiery spirit. She could be counted on to help out, and to encourage others. Please accept our sympathy. Pam Zerba

“ *Because I am unable to attend the services this weekend, I have posted this in lieu of a eulogy. *Chris, her older sister, 10.11.23**

My sister Mikki had a pistol – no – I meant to say, my sister Mikki WAS a pistol! She was bold. She was brash. You never had to wonder what she was thinking. She left her own indelible impression on everyone she met. She championed many causes, and she stood up for herself and her loved ones as well. She said what she wanted to say, did what she wanted to do, and cared not one whit about what anybody thought about it.

There are a lot of stories I could tell about my sister Mikki, but one thing is certain: Mikki lived her life exactly the way she wanted to live it, and let no one divert her from her chosen path. And that took courage. In a time and place where women are expected to conform to local norms, Mikki turned that expectation on its head and did exactly as she pleased. And for that, I salute her; and that is the way I will always remember her.

May all of us have the courage to follow our convictions and be true to ourselves the way my sister Mikki was. And may she rest in peace.
