“ So sorry to hear of the passing of cousin Milt. Had a lot of good memories with him when he lived in Florida. He had a great sense of humor. Aunt Nancy, you definitely had a rough few years with the passing of your siblings and especially Uncle Milt. I am glad Milt isn't suffering anymore. Thinking of you, Sherry, and Randy.

“ I learned of Milt's passing this afternoon. Please accept my deepest sympathies as you grieve the loss of your son, brother, and uncle. I am so sorry for your loss. He had such an amazing aura around him. I never meant anyone else like Milt. He would give his shirt off his back for anyone! Everyone loved Milt, and he loved everyone as well. Milt was a very special person who had a HUGE heart and we miss him dearly at the Med Center. He is no longer suffering and is pain-free. He is singing with the angels. Your son made a huge impact where ever he went and what ever country he was in, he changed so many lives and made a huge impact with whatever his hands were in. God bless you Milt, may God grant you eternal rest, and let your perpetual light shine upon you. May your beautiful soul rest in peace. Love your friend from 4AC.
