“ For a season of my life I ran some 5K races and the Senior Games. I met Clair with Carl Spangler at some point in my running, and after I knew who they were, I would see them unexpectedly in places like Shippensburg PA where I was running and they came to run. Carl didn't drive, and Clair was kind enough to drive Carl so that they both could run. Clair was not a good runner, but he did his best. I would often see him listed in races that I would never dream to enter, like the Red Rose Run. I will always remember him as a good soul who was kind to his friend, and who made an effort to do that running even though he was often at the back of the pack. I will miss him.

It is wonderful to trust that because of Clair's faith in Jesus as his personal savior, that he now can "Run and not get weary! He can walk and not faint!" Isaiah 40: 30-31. Praise God for this man's life and his courageous witness of his faith as he was never shy to sing the praises of Jesus!

Clair and I sang together in the tenor section of One A-Chord Choir for many years. I enjoyed talking with him about many things: our Christian faith, all the races he ran in, delivering telephone directories, cast iron road signs, health challenges, etc. I heard him speak in person at a historical society meeting about his book. I have many good memories of this good man ... Clair, rest in peace!
