I miss you so much already. Things definitely aren't going to be the same without you and Carl around. None of us were ready for this. But I know that you are loved wherever you are. I love you.

I lost touch with Carl and Nancy when we moved away. I remember when Carl brought her for us to meet when they first started dating. She put it together, she was my cousin Richard's daughter. I didn't know Carl had passed away. They will be missed by family but I can see they had a good life.
