“ To the Rocke and Karapcik Families Our deepest sympathies are with your families during this time of sorrow. We continue to keep you lifted in prayer as you mourn the loss of such a virtuous women, mother, and grandmother. As you take one day at a time, honor and cherish the shared memories that made you smile and, most importantly, the impact she leaves on you through your personal relationship with her. While it may seem that she is gone too soon, may the strength of your faith in God, hope for tomorrow, and love for one another bring you peace in this time of sorrow. In Sympathy & Love, Brian & Rhonda Arrington
