

Nancy Spangler

June 16, 1938 - July 9, 2009

Nancy Marie Spangler, 71, left this world on Thursday, July 9, 2009. She was born in Lebanon on June 16, 1938 and was the daughter of the late Irwin and Anna (Werner) Heisey of Cleona. Nancy was a long-time resident of Mt Gretna, where she enjoyed living nestled amidst the pines, tulip trees and tiger lilies. She graduated from Lebanon High School and attended Westminster Choir College in Princeton, NJ, where she majored in voice and was active in various choral activities. Throughout her life, Nancy loved traveling and trying new restaurants and was drawn to the exotic and off-beat. For Nancy, the road less traveled was always the best way to go. Nancy is survived by her husband of 45 years, Frederick, a retired teacher at Northern Lebanon; son Eric and daughter-in-law Helen of New Bloomfield; and daughter Heidi and son-in-law Arun Sarna of Singapore. They will all remember and cherish memories of Nancy's wonderful sense of humor, generosity and devotion to her three grandsons --- Nicholas Spangler, Kavi Sarna and Tejas Sarna. While Nancy, a wife, mother and grandmother, left us too soon, we will always have a store of fond memories to sustain us, from trips to New York City to cruises, comedy clubs and fun family dinners (especially at the Von Trapp Lodge in VT). A graveside service for immediate family was held at Grand View Memorial Park, N. Annville Twp. Memorial contributions can be made to Nancy's favorite charity, the Humane Society, 150 N. Ramona Rd., Myerstown, PA 17067. Arrangements were in the care of the Kreamer & Lum Funeral Home & Crematory, Jonestown. www.kreamerlum
