

Naomi L. Ollar

November 13, 1931 - July 27, 2011

The Lord replied, My presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.” Exodus 33:14. Naomi L. Ollar, 79, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, July 27, 2011, at the Lebanon Good Samaritan Hospital. She was the precious wife of Samuel A. Ollar, and they would have celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary on October 14. Born in Green Point on November 13, 1931, Naomi was the daughter of the late Edward and Dora Swalm Ditzler. She was a member of the Myerstown Baptist Church. Naomi loved gardening, baking, cooking, sewing, singing, and taking care of her “girls.” In addition to her husband, Naomi is survived by her daughters, Gail L., wife of Joseph Reinhard of Myerstown, and Debra M. Ollar-Carpenter of Bellegrove; sister, Evelyn Baker of Myerstown; grandchildren Nathan, Dorian, Sarah, Rebekah, and Abigail; and great grandchildren, Daymien, Alexander, Ella Grace, and McKenah. Although we draw comfort that she is now with the Lord in Heaven, she will be greatly missed each and every day, and remembered in every sunrise and sunset; each welcoming sign of spring; the soft summer rain; autumn’s changing colors; and winter’s softly falling snowflakes. Naomi’s life will be celebrated on Monday, August 1, 2011, at 10:00 a.m. at Kreamer & Lum Funeral Home & Crematory, Rt. 72 & Camp Meeting Rd., Jonestown. A viewing will be held at the funeral home from 9:00 a.m. until the time of the service. Interment at Indiantown Gap National Cemetery, E. Hanover Twp. directly following the service. www.kreamerlumfh.com

PDF Printable Version

Tribute Wall

RS

“ My deepest codolences to your entire family during your loss. Will not be able to attend the service, because my Father's service is on the same morning. I feel your pain, but the memories are key in carrying you through your loss.

Rick Schies - July 29, 2011 at 12:00 AM