

Nathan R. "Nate" Stauffer

January 23, 1956 - October 11, 2023

Nathan R. "Nate" Stauffer, 67, of Lebanon passed away on October 11, 2023 unexpectedly with his wife by his side at Geisinger Wyoming Valley Medical Center, after sustaining injuries from a fall in Luzerne County. He is survived by his wife Marie E. (Hedricks) Stauffer.

Nate was born in Lebanon County to the late Richard and Anna (Moyer) Stauffer. He was owner/operator of Fluid Conservation Technologies for 22 years. He had attended Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic Church in Lebanon. Nate enjoyed being outdoors, visiting the mountains and the beach, and going out to eat in Luzerne County. Nate loved his work and was especially proud of working at Camp David. He was especially proud of his grandchildren. Nate will be greatly missed by his family, friends, and his many clients.

He was awarded the American Red Cross Certificate of Merit on May 13, 1996 for selfless and humane action for saving a man's life.

The family would like to say a special thank you to the doctors, nurses, and caregivers at Geisinger Wyoming Valley Medical Center, and Dr. Pantelli at Hershey Medical Center for their care and compassion to Nate.

Surviving in addition to his wife is a daughter Jennifer Showers (Korey) of Milton, DE, grandchildren, Kale of Seattle, WA and Kasi in College in VA, and a brother Keith Stauffer of Ohama, NE.

A Memorial Service will be held on Tuesday, October 17, 2023 at 11AM at Kreamer Funeral Home and Crematory Inc., 618 E. Main Street, Annville.

There will be a visitation from 10AM until 11AM at the funeral home.
In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to The Ophthalmology
Department at Penn State Hershey Medical Center, 500 University Drive, Hershey, PA 17033.

“Nate was a good friend and one of the nicest people you want to meet. He was laid back, a hard worker, and enjoyed music events by local and regional musicians and bands. May God's Grace & Peace be with and Comfort Marie and the Family to Sustain them through this Hard Time of Loss. Keep the Good Memories Alive. Grace & Peace to All.
