“ I am so sorry to read about the passing of Norma Smith. My mother lived in Ephrata and she went to school with Norma, my mother was Betty Zimmerman Troxell, I am truly saddened and heartbroken to read about Norma. I know she was having some health issues and I'm sending out my condolences to her whole family. God bless all of you. Karen Miller

“ Aunt Norma, what can I say. The most loving person I've ever know. Her and Donald would visit and she would always want hugs. The last I saw her was 2011 when I came through with friends on a bike ride. She welcomed us with open arms.
