“ Pat and I shared 52 years together and through thick and thin he was by my side. There are no words to describe his love and dedication to me and his family. He will be forever in my heart until we meet again.

“ To All of Pat's Family, Mainly from St. Paul's way back in the 1950's, the Heffner and Kreider Families were close friends as I remember my dad taking us to your house on Main St. Every Saturday night Mass, Pat would amble over to me and my walker at the Sign Of Peace and tell me that he is always praying for me! The latest time was the 10th of September and now I say Thanks Pat and Forever Peace to Your Spirit!
