“ I will always remember the trips they made to visit us here in Ohio. The trips we made to Pennsylvania to visit with them was always pleasurable and a lot of fun. I remember several times will we would go golfing together and he would give me great pointers. We never left Pennsylvania after visiting with them without a box of chocolates from Hershey. I will always love and miss you and Aunt Marilyn. May you rest peacefully in God's arms.

“ Uncle Paul and I shared a love for Philadelphia sports teams and that was always fun to talk about when we were together. However, I am really grateful that he taught me how to play golf! It started with hitting wiffle golf balls in the backyard at the house in Annville and then to playing real golf courses outside of Lebanon and to Myerstown. It is my go-to form of relaxation in retirement. The last time Beth and I visited him, we reminisced about those times together. He was surprised that I'm still able to shoot a round in the mid-80's. I said it was because I had a good, patient teacher. He smiled and gave that little laugh of his.
