“ My grandmother (Nanny), my friend. There will never be another like her and she will be remembered forever. She and grandpa shared a wonderful long marriage and life together, with a deep love and respect for one another which is not easy to find now a days. Nanny was very kind and had a great sense of humor. I wish more than anything she could still be here with us through the holidays and that I could have seen her one last time, but I know she is with us in spirit. I will never forget the wonderful conversations and visits with her, the lovely cooking and the comfort I felt being around her. I will always love you Nanny!
