“ Polly sat to my dad’s right at their dining room table in personal care at Spang Crest. My father spilled his water on her numerous times. She was always so sweet and gracious. I loved Polly. When I interacted with her on the 3rd floor of Spang Crest, she never complained. She asked about how my dad was doing. She repeatedly mentioned how wonderful her family is and how they take such good care of her. I am so sorry for your loss. Polly was a truly wonderful human being.
