

Phillip D. "Phil" Snell

June 13, 1949 - October 14, 2020

Phillip D. "Phil" Snell, 71, of Lebanon, passed away on Wednesday October 14, 2020 at his residence. He was the husband of Alice C. (McGovern) Snell, with whom he celebrated 48 years in marriage.

Phil was born in Chester on June 13, 1949 to the late Clifford and Ella (Carey) Snell. He had retired as an engineer tech from Blue Scope Steel. He was a member of Church of the Good Shepherd, where he was involved with Appalachia Service Project mission trips and was very involved with the church choir. He was also a Merchant Marine. He enjoyed working in the press room at the Giant Center and watching The Hershey Bears. He was a woodworker and bowled with different leagues, including a church bowling league. He loved visiting the shore.

Surviving in addition to his wife is a daughter, Joye (Snell) and her husband James Sipe of Seven Valleys, PA, two step grandchildren, William and Kathryn, and his brothers, Clifford "Ed" Snell of Texas, and Daniel Snell and his wife Toni of Aston, PA.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, October 24, 2020 at 11:30AM from Church of the Good Shepherd, 1500 Quentin Road, Lebanon, PA 17042. Interment will be held privately.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to his church, Church of the Good Shepherd, for Appalachia Service Project.

“ I got to know Phil when I joined the choir. He sat directly behind me. His tenor voice was absolutely beautiful. I am sure God has a place for him in the splendid choir in Heaven. He will be sorely missed.
