

Phyllis J. Allen

September 30, 1932 - July 25, 2018

Phyllis J. Allen, 85, of Lebanon, passed away on Wednesday July 25, 2018, at Stone Ridge Poplar Run. She was the wife of the late Bradley L. "Brad" Allen, who passed away in 2016.

Phyllis was born in Canton, PA on September 30, 1932 to the late Rozell and Ruth (Bolt) Porter. Phyllis obtained her bachelor's degree from Grove City College. She was a homemaker. She also had worked for Hawk's Department Store, Temp. Force and had been a substitute teacher. Phyllis was a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church where she sang in the choir. When she was younger she had a love for horses and owned a horse. She earned many awards with her horse. Phyllis was very active with The Hershey Community Chorus, where she would travel extensively throughout Europe. She enjoyed going to The Hershey Theatre and traveling to various nursing homes to perform for the residents. She and her late husband, Brad, enjoyed going to the movies and traveling throughout the world. Her hobbies included reading, cross stich, and playing piano.

Surviving are her sons, Mark B. Allen of Reading, Barry L. Allen and his wife Sheri of Lebanon, Gregory S. Allen and his wife Becki of Palm Bay, FL, grandsons, Jonathan, Brandon, Hunter, two great grandchildren, Mason and Madelyn, and her brother, Richard Porter. She was preceded in death by her grandson, Joshua, and her brothers, Harold, Wilfred, and Robert.

A private graveside will be held at the convenience of the family at Indiantown Gap National Cemetery. There will be a viewing held on Sunday, July 29, 2018 from 5PM – 7PM at Kreamer Funeral Home and Crematory Inc., 618 E.
