“ We celebrate our beautiful Quentin and the fine young man he was. Most candles dim as they burn down but not our Quentin. He shined brighter and brighter. Nothing or no one can ever extinguish that wonderful smile that brightened our lives, or his hugs which expressed his love. We will miss you, honey. Momma and Nate, Madison and Grandma, Harmony, Freddy, the family, and all the children, we will be lifting you up continually and will be here for you. Our love and prayers. Marty and Mike Barth

My heart was sadden when I got the news of the passing of Q. I am ever so blessed I had the opportunity to have him cross my path. He was a fighter and he fought as long as he could. God bless Madison as she walked with him as much as she could I just loved the way she loved him. To his Mom and Pastor Nate God forever bless you. Thank you all for sharing him with me. I will miss that beautiful smile but I will never forget it or the times we shared. May God give all of you what you need as you go through this difficult time. Benzenia and Jonathan (Harrisburg PA)
