“ I continue to tender my deepest sympathy to the Martins family and honor your loss. God saw the road was getting rough when he decided to call our beloved Rachael home, just over a month ago. Often times I envision her sitting sanctimoniously in church with her warm smile, or getting ready to aboard the van to journey back home.

When I gave sister Rachael the bouquet of roses in the month of January, I never thought it would be so soon when I would have delivered the last one to her.

Let us comfort our selves to know that the Lord God is in the midst of everything and that he never gives us more than what we can bear. Let us continue to trust in him and obey his words.

“ The late Rachael M Martin was a woman of excellence. She had been an absolute tower of strength and her sickness did not prevent her from preparing delicious meals for us on Sundays. She served us well until her strength failed.

I believe that she will reap her reward in heaven, because of the many lives which she touched. Her death is a fact that we all must accept; since it is a road that we will travel at sometime or the other. It is imperative that we live each day as if it is the last. Hence, we are all aware that death is inevitable.

“ It was a pleasure to have known Rachael whom I have adopted as my sister in Christ, as well as a dear friend. I continue to think about her daily and reflect upon the happy times we shared. She has gone too soon, but she will never be forgotten. Her unselfish attitude is a testimony to us, that she did not live in vain. Rather, she lived for Christ and because of that, I am confident that she will live again! I miss her sitting beside me at the end of our church services. However, I comfort myself with the hope that she has gone to a better place sitting closer to Jesus.

“ Precisely one month ago we loss someone special. She is no other than our wonderful and beloved daughter, wife , mother ,grand mother, sister, aunt and cousin Rachael-Marie Martin. It is just not easy to cope with the loss of a loved one. More than ever she is in my thoughts all day.In the twinkling of an eye death has stolen her away from us. How I missed hearing her modulated voice, seeing her beaming smiles and feeling her warm embrace since she has 'crossed over.' I believe she is proudly smiling down on us from heaven. We will continue to honor and cherish her memory with a smile. May her soul continue to rest in peace until we all meet again.

“ Our dearly beloved sister Rachael's allotted time on earth was only

46 years

559 months

2,430 weeks

408,384 hours

24,503,040 minutes

1,470,182,400 seconds

To God, we still graciously give the glory and thanks for her time well spent on earth.

How time is really fleeting. It has now been,

1 month

4 weeks

28 days

672 hours

40,320 minutes

2,419,200 seconds

Our sister Rachael has left us within this time span. It is my hope that she is in glory-- and sitting at the feet of Jesus.

“ Sister Rachael was quite appreciative and delighted to have received a bouquet of flowers from me on a monthly basis. Indeed I gave her flowers while she lived and my! oh my! It pleases my heart to know that I was able to perform that gesture until sunset February 6th 2017. Praise Jesus! Sleep on sister.

“ One week ago today, death laid its icy hand on a beloved daughter,wife, mother, sister, aunt and friend Rachael. She had been a tower of strength for us all. Sister Rachael was a benevolent person who went above and beyond to serve us in many ways. Indeed, she was cognizant of that fact that she would only pass this way but once. With that in mind, she made the effort to do good as long as she could for she knew that she would not pass this way again. Indeed, she has left an indelible mark on our lives. It behooves us now to emulate her life.

God saw the road was getting rough and the hill was to hard for sister Rachael to climb, so he gently closed her loving eyes and whispered to her" Peace be thine". It broke our hearts to see her go, but she did not go alone for part of us went with her on Monday February 6th, 2017 at 5:19 AM. Her course on earth has expired. It is our hope that she has gone to glory to be with the Lord. She will no longer be our cook, but it is our hope that the angels would enjoy her cooking in heaven and enjoy the smells of her flowers in the garden.

I will continue to pray for her family and all who are left to mourn her lost. May sister Rachael continue to rest in peace and rise in glory on that great day.
