

Randall C. Loeb

January 13, 1953 - August 20, 2018

Randy Loeb, 65, raised in Cleona, PA, passed peacefully on Monday, August 20, 2018 at University of Maryland Medical Center, Baltimore, MD. He was preceded in death by his parents, Russell C. Loeb, Jr. and Grace Laudermilch Loeb of Cleona, PA. Randy is survived by his loving wife, Gail Vogel Loeb, formerly of Manheim, PA. He was a 1975 graduate of Catawba College in NC and over the course of his life he resided in the cities of Houston, Texas; Landing, New Jersey; Frederick, MD; Spartanburg, SC and Wilmington, NC. After an early career in the steel and foundry industry, he found his passion in the world of franchising, helping like-minded entrepreneurs become business owners. Randy will be remembered as a lifelong Tar Heel, Dallas Cowboy and Red Sox fan, and as the ultimate car and hot rod enthusiast. He owned an airplane before buying a car and held the national record for soloing in 13 different aircraft while a teen. He will be missed by so many who called him their friend. A celebration of Randy's life will be held September 15, in Wilmington, NC.
