“ Dear Vickie, I'm so thankful I had the honor of knowing “Wonderful Ray”. He was definitely a great man. I know this not only because of the kindness and love he showed to Bobby, myself, my kids and grandchildren-but also by the love so many people had for him. That speaks volumes of a life well lived.

“How ya doing, girl?” he'd always say to me, and offer uplifting words or a silly one-liner to lighten my spirit, while his striking blue eyes showed his nixy side.

God Bless him and keep him till we all meet again. Till then, he will be sorely missed every day...

Love, Gini
